#5. model entry-level professional performance skills on a primary instrument or voice, through a capstone recital.

IV. Instructional Materials

There is an immense library of works available for performance. Inasmuch as this is a performance class, there are generally no auxiliary readings, except on occasion as the situation warrants.

V. Minimum Student Material

A musical instrument appropriate to the ensemble.

VI. Minimum College Facilities

A rehearsal room large enough for the ensemble with adequate sound insulation.

VII. Course Outline

1. reading sessions devoted to familiarizing the ensemble with a modest amount of repertoire.
2. narrowing of focus to a few select pieces for performance at quarter end.
3. improving all aspects of performance as well as providing students with additional knowledge about the works being performed, i.e., historical period, stylistic characteristics, form, etc.

VIII. Instructional Methods

Rehearsal and lecture modes will be used.

IX. Evaluation of Outcomes

Grades are awarded on the basis:

1. of regular attendance
2. accuracy of performance of parts
3. improvement during the quarter.

A formal public concert of approximately 60 minutes will be given near the end of semester. It takes the place of a final exam. In the event that a public performance is not scheduled, the class will meet during the assigned final exam time for an informal performance/presentation of its accomplishments.
