Dear Campus Community,

Timely Warning Crime Bulletin

Attempted Non-Negligent Manslaughter, Aggravated Assault, and Domestic Violence

This timely warning crime bulletin is being issued on 05/05/2021 in compliance with the “Timely Notice” provisions of the Jeanne Clery Act of 1988, and the purpose is to provide preventative information to the campus to aid members from becoming the victim of a similar crime.

The Crime

On 05/04/2021, at approximately 6:02pm, a female victim was involved in a physical altercation with a male subject, in the G parking lot on campus (3801 W Temple Ave, Pomona, CA 91768). As a result of the altercation, the victim sustained major injuries and is currently hospitalized in critical condition. The suspect fled the location in a dark colored vehicle and his whereabouts are currently unknown. The University Police Department (UPD) is investigating this crime as an isolated incident of domestic violence. It is believed that the suspect is known to the victim.
