

E&P Report

Results of Referenda on Constitutional Changes, &c.

CPP Academic Senate Meeting

10/10/2018

CalPolyPomona

Chemical and Materials Engineering

Jonathan Puthoff

Cal Poly Pomona

Results of Referenda

195 ballot(s) cast

1. 1. Do you want to amend the constitution to provide for part-time faculty representation on the Academic Senate?

1 answer(s) allowed

192 voter(s) responded to this question

Answer	Responses	% of Question	% of total Ballots
Yes	106	55%	54%
No	86	44%	44%

2. 2. Do you want to amend the constitution to align the dates to the semester calendar?

1 answer(s) allowed

193 voter(s) responded to this question

Answer	Responses	% of Question	% of total Ballots
Yes	190	98%	97%
No	3	1%	1%

Revised and reformatted versions of Constitution and Bylaws have been published on the Academic Senate website.

What's Next?

- A. Top-to-bottom revision of Constitution and Bylaws is underway (a responsibility of the E&P Committee)
- B. Committee membership for PT-lecturer reps. Is currently unrestricted (though cannot chair a committee or serve on the EC.)
- C. Additional responsibilities for PT-lecturer reps. (office hours?) need to be formalized
- D. Stipend based on verifiable time commitment?
- E. First elections for PT-lecturer seats to be held Spring 2019
- F. Want to formalize election/referendum procedures in appendix to Bylaws

The End

Questions

(short, direct)