Background on AB 275

1. Last year, Governor Newsom signed AB 275 into law making significant changes to the California Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (CalNAGPRA) and comports with the federal Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) passed more than two decades ago.
2. Legislation applies to the CSU and UC and requires us to inventory and summarize Native American remains, objects and cultural artifacts on our campus.
3. Specifically, AB 275 requires the University to:
 - a. Complete inventories and summaries by January 1, 2022, for submission to the California Native American Heritage Commission (NAHC).
 - b. Consult with tribal representatives to complete respective inventories and summaries. Each collection must be negotiated with respective tribe.
 - c. Repatriate human remains, objects and cultural items to the appropriate tribes.

Establishment of Presidential Advisory Committee

- 1. Charged with providing ongoing management and compliance oversight.
- 2. Advising the President on matters regarding implementation of state and federal legal requirements.
- 3. Promoting engagement with Tribal representatives and the Native American community on and off-campus.
- 4. Engage in training to assure deep understanding of NAGPRA, CalNAGPRA, the process of tribal consultation and repatriation.
- 5. Committee composition includes a Repatriation Tribal Liaison, Repatriation Coordinator, Dean of the Library, Student Affairs VP Designee, two (2) faculty members and two (2) students.

Timeline and Next Steps

In order to form the committee and begin work by January 30, 2022, below is a timeline of key action steps.
