A through K Categories:

All students are required to demonstrate coverage of the A through K categories listed below by taking at least one course from each category. ENG 207, ENG 208, ENG 441, or ENG 446 for English Literature and ENG 211 or ENG 457 for American Literature can be used to satisfy coverage of more than one period, but each course only counts as four units toward the 16 units required for English Literature (Categories A-E) and the 12 units required American Literature (Categories F-H):

- 4 English Literature courses (Categories A-E) *
- 3 American Literature courses (Categories F-H) **
- 3 World Literature courses (Category I)
- 2 Literature/Language courses (Category J)
- 1 Linguistics course (Category K)

Students must also ensure that the entirety of their English Education program (Core and A-K categories) includes 74 units of upper-division (300/400) courses.

*One course in Categories A-E must be a survey course
One course in Categories F-H must be a survey course

A through K Categories are listed on the back side of curriculum sheet.
