Instruction Mode Definition

Instruction Modes	PeopleSoft Instruction Mode Values	Instruction Mode Definitions
Face-to-Face	P	Course meets face-to-face in a classroom (instructor+ students in one location) for all of the course contact hours prescribed by the course classification and units. Syllabus, grades and course materials may be posted online.
Hybrid with Asynchronous Component	HA	Course uses both classroom and asynchronous instructional modes and meets face-to-face for a portion of the course contact hours prescribed by the course classification and units.
Hybrid with Synchronous Component	HS	Course uses both classroom and synchronous instructional modes and meets face-to-face for a portion of the course contact hours prescribed by the course classification and units.
Fully Asynchronous	A	100% of the course instruction is delivered online in an asynchronous instruction mode. No scheduled meetings are required.
Fully Synchronous	S	100% of the course instruction is delivered online or via remote broadcast in a synchronous instruction mode. Students do not need to be on campus for any portion of course work or evaluation.
Bisynchronous	B	100% of the course instruction is delivered online using both synchronous and asynchronous instructional modes. The synchronous meeting pattern meets at an approved time module/meeting pattern.
HyFlex	HF	Course uses face-to-face, synchronous and asynchronous instruction modes. Instruction is provided in the classroom, and for each class meeting, students may choose to attend face-to-face, synchronously online or asynchronously online.

Note

Asynchronous instruction is defined as online instruction that allows students to view instructional materials at any time.

Synchronous instruction is defined as online or remote broadcast instruction delivered during scheduled class meetings.
