Connect and Learn: Coping, Thriving, and Sustaining

GUEST SPEAKER:
President Soraya Coley, Cal Poly Pomona

Our resiliency is being tested in unprecedented ways. Engage in an interactive session where we share our mindful techniques for coping during these trying times, reaffirm our individual sources of strength and learn to continue to thrive and adopt sustainable practices for the future. Join us for our first Connect and Learn virtual meeting where President Coley will share her values and strategies for impactful leadership during challenging times.

This event will be hosted via Zoom. Meeting link and password will be provided following registration.
