

AdA Presents Disability Pride Week

Friday, Feb. 2

Kellogg Gym

12pm – 1pm

ABC'S OF DISABILITY:

Raising AWARENESS Eliminating BARRIERS & Shaping CULTURE

Gaelynn Lea is a musician and winner of NPR Music's 2016 Tiny Desk Contest.

Gaelynn is a strong voice in the disability community; she uses her music as a platform to advocate for people with disabilities and positive social change.

Wednesday, Feb. 7

Andromeda AB

3pm – 5pm

DISABILITY IN THE INTERSECTIONS:

Queer, Crip, Bodyminds of Color

Join us for a community conversation about disability, oppression, and pride amongst disability justice activists, community organizers, and artists.

Alice Wong – The Founder of the Disability Visibility Project®.

Lilac Vylette Maldonado – Community organizer / activist.

Laurent Corrales – 'Zinester, CPP Alum.

Sade Musa – Runs Roots of Resistance

Vanessa Durand – Admin of lafemmesofcolor on Tumblr
Co-creator of #femmesofcolorvisibility

Moderator: Dr. Kafai from CPP's Ethnic and Women's Studies department.

Tues., Feb. 6 & Thur., Feb. 8

Bronco Commons & Quad 11am – 2pm

REMOVE THE R-WORD, REPLACE WITH RESPECT

Spread the Word to End the Word!

The R-word hurts because it is exclusive, offensive and derogatory. Pledge to stop saying the R-word and to create more accepting attitudes and communities for all people.

Friday, Feb. 9

BSC Lyra

10am – 1pm

ABILITY ALLY TRAINING

Ability Allies are a campus network of individuals who take a visible role in promoting disability awareness and supporting persons with disabilities.

Seats are limited. Registration required.

Visit cpp.edu/ada

Contact:

Paula Sosta (pmsosta@cpp.edu)