BUS 1010

Business Freshman Experience

Business 1010: is primarily an introduction to University life, a look at the impact of the business discipline on society (and on you) an opportunity to develop the skills you need to be a successful student, business professional and lifetime learner. You will identify skills, interest and talents and learn how to use them to improve your personal, academic and professional performance. You will also gain an understanding of the resources available to support you at Cal Poly Pomona.
FRL 1001

Personal Money Management

FRL 1001: Personal financial management including allocation of financial resources and planning of expenditures. Topics include personal budgeting, housing decisions, consumer protection, insurance options, using credit, personal income taxes, savings, investments, and retirement options. The material is applied in settings that are relevant to students. Course fulfills GE area E.
STUDY ABROAD

Location: Building 1 Room 104
Study Abroad can be one of the most rewarding experiences of your academic career. Study Abroad enriches you personally and professionally by expanding your understanding of culture and global dynamics that affect us every day. A study abroad or exchange experience on your resume will help identify you as a person who is adaptable, global-minded, and assertive.

Why you should participate in an international experience:

• Develop competitive career advantage by building your resume
• Earn academic credit toward your degree
• Gain a global perspective that is desired by employers
• Learn or perfect language skills
• Learn to value differences of thought and diversity
• Create international networks and friends
• Travel and learn about the world
