30 GOOD DEEDS FOR 9/11 DAY

Check out 30 easy to perform good deed for you, your friends, and family

1. Call or text someone you care about or haven't seen in a while.
2. Donate clothing, eyewear, or winter coats.
3. Offer to buy coffee for the person in line behind you.
4. Drop off cookies or food to a local police or fire station. (Please call them first.)
5. Donate to 9/11 Day at 911day.org, or another nonprofit of your choice.
6. Plan a special day or moment with your children or a child you mentor.
7. Explore volunteer opportunities at JustServe, VolunteerMatch, or Points of Light Engage.
8. Send an email or a letter to someone who helped you at a key point in your life.
9. Surprise your teacher with a thank you letter or small gift.
10. Make a donation at retail if presented with an opportunity.
11. Make plans with friends you haven't seen in a while.
12. Write a note to your mom or dad, thanking them for all they've done for you.
13. Thank a colleague for their hard work.
14. Cook a meal for someone you care about.
15. Hold a door open for someone.
16. Drop off canned food items at your local food bank or pantry.
17. Say only nice things on social media for one day.
18. Reach out to someone you've lost touch with.
19. Help your child decide what they can do as their good deed for 9/11 Day.
20. Give a gift card to someone.
21. Schedule time to volunteer at an animal shelter or other nonprofit.
22. Give your seat on the train, bus, or subway to another person.
23. Read your child a bedtime story.
24. Quit smoking or do another good deed for yourself.
25. Take a walk with a friend or loved one.
26. Reflect on the things you're grateful for in your life.
27. Tell your spouse/partner how much you appreciate them.
28. Send a hand-written letter or card to someone in the military or veteran.
29. Pick up some trash in a public area.
30. Think of your own good deed. (Any good deed counts!)
