

CLASS - Com - Kaufman-Yarbrough Memorial Scholarship

Description

Communication majors are eligible for the Kaufman-Yarbrough Memorial Scholarship.

Two recipients will be awarded $250. This is a one-time award; previous recipients are not eligible.

To be considered for 2019-2020, applicant(s) must meet the following criteria:

- Open to all undergraduate students majoring in Communication
- Cumulative and Cal Poly Pomona GPA must be greater than or equal to 3.25
- Answer and provide all supplemental questions after completing your general question

Should you have any questions, please contact Mark Generous at magenerous@cpp.edu, in the Communication Department.

To begin the application process, please complete your general application first, then proceed to search this scholarship in the “Opportunities >> Ours” tab and click on APPLY. Applications are due by March 17, 2020.

 In addition to the online application form, student applicants are required to completed supplemental questions:

- A current resume
- A statement (300 words or less) that addresses the following: the applicant’s reason why they/he/she is applying for the scholarship; and, the applicant’s career and educational goals.

Selection Process: Awards each year are based on the student’s general application and supplemental responses. The Scholarship Committee of the Department of Communication will decide the recipients. Note - finalists may be interviewed by the Communication Department’s Student Scholarships Committee.
