

“Big Shot” is a vaudevillian theatrical collage inspired by “The Godfather” films and novel, and presented by Theatre Movement Bazaar. TMB shakes down this iconic story to create a new work, echoing the source and investigating family dynamics, power, criminal behavior, and being an Italian American. In “Big Shot,” the American gangster genre is upended through stylized theatrics, dynamic movement, song, dance and pasta.

“Big Shot ... unravels the myth of the ‘Godfather,’ poking at it from different angles, exposing the times, asking questions and, ultimately, entertaining us ...”

– Fringe Review

When: 8 p.m. Saturday, March 11

Where: Cal Poly Pomona University Theatre (Building 25)

Admission: Free

This performance is sponsored by the Cal Poly Pomona Department of Theatre and New Dance.

For more information, call (909) 869-3962

@CPPtheatreDance

#CPPtheatreDance