

The College of Letters, Arts, and Social Sciences (C.L.A.S.S.) advances knowledge and learning in established academic disciplines within the performing arts, humanities, and social sciences. It provides introductory and advanced coursework in over twenty degree and certificate programs. Departments represented are Communication, Economics, English and Modern Languages, Geography and Anthropology, History, Music, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, and Theatre and New Dance.

Mission

We cultivate intellectual development, ethical reasoning, and aesthetic sensibility of individuals to support creative and critical thinking in our diverse world.

Vision

We will be a supportive, engaged, and diverse community of teachers, learners, and scholars who improve the condition of humanity and the world in which we live.

Values

We the faculty, staff, and students of C.L.A.S.S. value:

- Theoretical and experimental approaches in developing critical thinkers and creative problem solvers
- Discovery through research, scholarly, and creative activities
- Transparency, equity, empathy, integrity, diversity
- Working towards a just, humane, and inclusive world

Contact Information

C.L.A.S.S. Dean's Office

Building 5, Room 158

Telephone: (909) 869-3500

Email: class@cpp.edu

For more information, visit

www.cpp.edu/~class/

or follow us on Instagram/Twitter/Facebook

@classcpp