

Faculty Position Announcement Part-Time/Temporary Lecturers

The English & Modern Languages Department at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona (Cal Poly Pomona) invites lecturers to become members of our part-time temporary lecturer pool.

Minimum Qualifications

Master's degree in field of specialization (or master's degree in related field and relevant teaching experience) required at time of application. Teaching responsibilities include classroom lecture/discussions, grading of frequent papers, individualized instruction and scheduled office hours.

Preferred/Desired Qualifications

Ph.D. in a relevant field preferred: Rhetoric and Composition, TESOL, Linguistics, English Education, French, German, Chinese (Mandarin), or Spanish.

Appointments

Part-time, temporary lecturer appointments are usually made for one academic semester (approximately 16 weeks) at fractions usually ranging from 4/15 to 12/15 of full-time; multiple semester appointments are possible. Incumbents may be reappointed to subsequent semesters contingent upon funding and favorable performance evaluations.

Application Procedure

Candidates must submit originals of:

- A completed academic application (signature is required);
- A curriculum vitae;
- Three recent letters of reference (dated within the past two years and at least one written within 12 months of the application). Please ask your letter writers to submit via email attachment to Maria Rodriguez (mjrodriguez@cpp.edu). Letters sent by applicants will not be accepted;
- An official transcript from an accredited educational institution showing highest degree earned ("Issued to a student" is not considered an official transcript).

Applicants should request the Transcript Office of their institution to send the official transcripts via email attachment to Maria Rodriguez (mjrodriguez@cpp.edu).

Please address all inquiries, requests for application forms, and application materials to:

The University

Cal Poly Pomona is one of two polytechnic universities in the 23-campus California State University system. Our ethnically diverse student population of approximately 26,000 enrolls in 52 baccalaureate, 26 master's degree programs, 11 credential and certificate programs, and a doctorate in Educational Leadership, presented by 1,200 faculty. We recruit students increasingly from throughout California and beyond. The students are success and career focused and extremely diverse. We are proud of our status as a Hispanic Serving Institution. We have a strong commitment to supporting scholarship, research, and student achievement. Our scenic and historic 1,400-acre campus, once the winter ranch of cereal magnate W. K. Kellogg, is located about 30 miles east of downtown Los Angeles in one of the most dynamic economic and cultural regions in the country, and within an hour's drive of beaches, mountains, and desert. The university is committed to diversifying its faculty and staff and has made educational equity one of its highest priorities. The mission of the university is to advance learning and knowledge by linking theory and practice in all disciplines, and to prepare students for lifelong learning, leadership, and careers in a changing, multicultural world.

The College

The College of Letters, Arts, and Social Sciences has the following mission: "We cultivate one's intellectual development, ethical reasoning, and aesthetic sensibility to support creative and critical thinking in a diverse world of competing challenges." The College offers introductory and advanced course work in numerous degree and certificate programs across the humanities, social sciences, and performing arts. The General Education program offered to all students enrolled in the University is also central to the mission of the College. The College embraces its role in providing courses and curricula in support of multiple and single-subject teaching credential students. The University's mission to "cultivate success through a diverse culture of experiential learning, discovery, and innovation" lies at the heart of the College's commitment to offer programs that educate the whole person. Additional information is available at <https://www.cpp.edu/~class/about/mission-and-vision.shtml>.

The Department

The English and Modern Languages Department serves more than 300 undergraduate majors with specialized options in Literary Studies, English Education, Applied Linguistics, and Spanish, and over 60 graduate students with options in Literature, Rhetoric & Composition, and TESOL.
