“I tell my students...I say, ‘you don’t understand.’
You’ve got to become obsessed with the music.
You can’t go into it halfway.
Music has to be like your lover;
You can’t just pay attention to it every so often.
It has to be something you want all the time.
You’re consumed by it.”

-Ric Soto
Greetings Studio Voice Students! Congratulations on choosing Voice as your primary instrument. This is an opportunity to develop excellent and healthy technique and to grow in your artistry so that you may share your gift for many years!

This handbook is designed to be all-inclusive in providing information you will need to know as a student of Studio Voice Lessons at Cal Poly Pomona Music Department.

Please keep an e-copy of the Voice Handbook so that you have answers and resources as needed. In addition, the faculty is always available to answer any questions you may have!

F. Recital Approval Form (Also found on CPP Music Website: Policies & Documents)
Auditions / Studio Placement

At one of three times during the academic year, you may audition for placement in a Voice Studio. These placement auditions take place at the following time:

- Fall Semester: Week Zero
- End of Fall Semester: During Juries (Finals Week, Fall)
- End of Spring Semester: During Juries (Finals Week, Spring)

Studio Voice Placement Auditions take place during finals’ week (jury times) and at the start of the academic year.

All students are required to audition in order to qualify for placement in studio lessons. Auditions are normally 8-10 minutes in length. Students should select material for the audition which best demonstrates their abilities. Placement auditions for Fall semester studios will be held on Wednesday of Fall Conference week (the day before classes begin). Auditions for Spring semester studios will be held during finals week of the Fall semester, during juries. In order to continue in studio, students must qualify at their jury each semester.

Forms to request upcoming auditions for students who did not begin Studio Voice during their first semester can be found outside of Office 134 on the bulletin board. Email Dr. Ali for confirmation of receipt once you have filled out the form and placed in it the envelope. See Appendix A at the back of this handbook.

A. Prepare an Audition Document to bring to your audition

Students should prepare the material as detailed below. Please provide the following information on a typed document for the audition committee. If you do not provide the complete information in a typed document at the audition, you will not be placed in studio.

1. Name, Bronco ID, Major, Expected Term and Year of Graduation
2. A list of repertoire studied during the past 3 years
3. Prior musical training (list, or present a resume)
4. Performance experience (solo and ensemble-list, or present resume)

B. At the Audition

1. Student will present the aforementioned typed document.
2. Student will sing two memorized songs in contrasting styles and tempi, which the student is capable of singing on pitch and with some musical understanding. The songs may be from the classical, Broadway, jazz, folk, or pop repertoire.
3. Student will provide sheet music for the accompanist in the correct key; or a background track* for each song.
4. Student will be expected to demonstrate tonal memory skills.
5. Student may be asked to sight-read a melodic excerpt.
6. Student will be expected to demonstrate vocal potential as shown through tone quality, clear diction, rhythmic aptitude, and the ability to communicate emotion.

* Tracks: If you are bringing tracks, you must email Dr. Ali no later than 2 weeks prior to the audition to communicate what you are bringing (phone? CD?) and what electronic needs you have.

You are required to be concurrently enrolled in Performance Seminar (MU 2700), and a voice-related ensemble while in Studio Voice. See Voice Area Ensemble section of this document (pg. 4) to contact directors of ensembles for audition information.
Voice Studio

The Voice Faculty at Cal Poly Pomona consists of outstanding singing artists who all bring a variety of performing and teaching experience, knowledge, singing and teaching skill, and education to the studio in guiding your singing so that you may reach your potential as a singer.

All Studio Instructors require a regular practice regime for all students enrolled in Studio Voice. In general, 7-12 hours per week is a good range for singing improvement. Be sure to schedule regular practice times. Study outcomes have shown that twenty minute practice periods with breaks have been proven to be more productive than continuing beyond twenty minutes without a break. Your studio instructor will provide you with details about practice required and the means of reporting it each week.

*All students enrolled in Studio Voice are also required to be enrolled in MU 2700 (Performance Seminar – Voice) during each semester of studio lessons.

*All students enrolled in MU 1770, MU 1811, MU 3770, MU 3811, and MU 4610 are required to be subsequently enrolled in a VOICE AREA ensemble during the semester of studio lessons.

~ LOWER DIVISION STUDIO FOR Bachelor of Arts Students ~

MU 1770: Lower-Division Voice for Bachelor of Arts Majors
- BA General Music (4 semesters)
- Music Industry Studies Students (2 semesters of studio required on your chosen instrument)

MU 1770 students will have ½ hour per week studio lesson with a Cal Poly Pomona Music Department Studio Voice Instructor. In addition, you are required to attend a coaching session with the staff accompanist each week. You should sign up for this weekly time on the door of Studio 132 at the beginning of each semester. The duration of these coachings is determined prior to each semester and may vary based on studio enrollment numbers.

“Creativity without discipline will struggle; creativity with discipline will succeed.”

— Amit Kalantri, Wealth of Words
~ LOWER DIVISION STUDIO FOR Bachelor of Music Students ~

MU 1811: Lower-Division Voice for Bachelor of Music Majors
- BM Vocal Performance (Classical or Commercial)
- BM Music Education

MU 1811 students will have a one-hour per week studio lesson with a Cal Poly Pomona Music Department Studio Voice Instructor. In addition, the staff accompanist will attend the second ½ hour of each lesson.

After four semesters of Voice Studio at the MU 1811 level, students audition for Upper-Division Studio Voice in order to be permitted to continue in the Bachelor of Music program. This leads to permission for a Junior Recital and Senior Recital for Performance Majors; and a Senior Recital for Music Education Majors. Students who do not pass have one more chance. After that, students must move into the Bachelor of Arts General Music program if they do not successfully pass into Upper Division Studio.

~ UPPER DIVISION STUDIO FOR Bachelor of Music Students ~

MU 3770: Upper-Division Voice for Bachelor of Music Majors
BM Music Education

MU 3811: Upper-Division Voice for Bachelor of Music Majors
BM Vocal Performance (Classical or Commercial)

MU 3770 and MU 3811 students will have a one-hour per week studio lesson with a Cal Poly Pomona Music Department Studio Voice Instructor. The staff accompanist will attend the second ½ hour of each lesson. In addition, you are required to meet with the staff accompanist for coaching once per week. You should sign up for this weekly time on the door of Studio 132 at the beginning of each semester.

MU 4610 is the enrollment required for the final semester of Studio Voice concurrent with the semester of Senior Recital (MU 4621).

“Success is no accident. It is hard work, perseverance, learning, studying, sacrifice; and most of all, love of what you are doing or learning to do.”

Juries (the Voice Final each semester)

Juries are the venue during which you perform your semester rep for the faculty as a final exam to your Studio Lessons. Juries occur during finals week of each term.

Jury sign-up sheets are posted outside of the music office prior to finals week near the end of each semester. You must sign up on the Voice Jury sheet. This is an individual time that you choose, usually consisting of a 9-10 minute time slot. Location of juries will also be provided on the sign up sheet.

Posted near Jury Sign-Up:

1. Jury Sheets (bring 5 completed copies): Students are required to bring the completed copies with BOTH SIDES copied to their jury. Students should read the entire sheet and complete it accurately. Note the bottom of the front page provides instructions for additional documentation you must type and present at your juries. This includes program notes, translations of non-English language selections, IPA translations for those who have taken Diction class, and a goals assignment. IPA translations should be written out (or re-typed). Do not submit a printout of the IPA from the internet—writing it out yourself will increase your skill in using the International Phonetic Alphabet. See Appendix D at the end of this handbook.

   1a. Typed Document (bring at least 1 copy): Please read the bottom of the Jury Form and follow instructions to create this form.

2. Studio Request Form (bring 1 copy only): If you are continuing in Studio Voice, a Studio Request Form (only one) should be submitted with your paperwork at your jury. See Appendix E at the end of this handbook.

For a positive and enriching experience, prepare all paperwork prior to the day of your jury. Prepare this paperwork when you are not rushed.

When you enter the jury room, present an organized stack of the documents to a faculty member who will then distribute them as you make your way to the piano to provide your music to the accompanist.

Dress for the jury is similar to dress for performance at an afternoon concert—not extremely formal but nice attire. A suit—or dress shirt with dress slacks or skirt—will help establish that this is an important moment. If you have questions about how dressy to be, ask your studio or performance seminar teacher.

“The greatest respect an artist can pay to music is to give it life.”

Upper Division Studio Auditions/Proficiency

Bachelor of Music Program:
Classical Vocal Performance  MU 1811 / MU 3811
Commercial Vocal Performance  MU 1811 / MU 3811
Music Education/Pedagogy  MU 1811 / MU 3770

At the end of the 4th semester of studio lessons (or possibly sooner for transfer students), students are eligible to apply for upper division standing. These auditions are part of the regular Fall and Spring juries. Upper Division Studio (MU 3811 & MU 3770) auditions take place during juries once a student has completed Lower Division (MU 1811) repertoire requirements and the Studio Teacher has determined the student is ready for upper division study in the BM program.

Students will have two opportunities to qualify for upper division status. Students who fail their initial audition will be granted one additional attempt. If they fail the second attempt, they will not be allowed to continue in the music performance emphasis or the music education option. At that point, they must either change to the BA degree option in Music, or possibly to MIS after consulting with MIS advisors.

During the designated Upper Division audition jury, students in the BM program must present seven (7) songs total plus additional jury rep if songs are from previous juries’ terms of study before they move into Upper Division Studio (MU 3811/MU 3700).

Students auditioning for Upper Division must:

• Sign up for TWO consecutive jury slots.

• Prepare 5 regular jury sheets and list the repertoire studied during the current semester.

• Mark songs that are both from the current semester and selected as one of the seven required Upper-Division Audition songs with an asterisk or highlighting on the regular jury sheet.

• Present the Lower Division repertoire grid of all repertoire studied for 4 semesters with titles, composer names, and semester presented for jury. This repertoire sheet is a template for required repertoire that you and your studio instructor will complete during your first four semesters of studio voice. The seven (7) selected songs should be highlighted; and the Independent song should be included in the grid where it appropriately fits. See detail on pages 8 & 9 about exact word for word translations of your independent song.

• Prepare scholarly program notes for each of the seven songs selected for the upper division jury. For all non-English language songs, provide a poetic translation with each program note listing.

• Prepare scholarly program notes as required for regular juries as well (See bottom of Jury Sheet).

• Bring 5 copies of each of the following:
  1. Regular Jury Sheets filled out (two-sided)
  2. Lower Division Grid of 24 songs (See Appendix B and Appendix C in this document). Highlight the chosen 7 selections for the UD Audition.
  3. Program Notes for all Upper Division Audition selections and regular jury repertoire with translations as noted above.

NOTE THE INFORMATION ON THE BOTTOM OF THE FRONT PAGE OF THE JURY FORM:

• If you have taken diction, please note the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) requirement on the bottom of the regular jury form and be sure to bring this completed assignment to your jury along with other required paperwork. As always, you must write out the IPA, and not just submit an already-prepared printout from a source.

• Note the GOALS assignment and be sure to bring this completed assignment to your jury along with other required paperwork.

Upper Division Jury/Audition Requirements:

Performance Classical Music Education

Voice Performance (Classical) and Music Education Students will prepare seven songs to include:

1. One English art song
2. One German Lied
3. One French art song
4. One song from the contemporary period (art song-any language)
5. One aria from an opera or oratorio
6. One selection of the student's choice
7. INDEPENDENT ITALIAN SONG*

*Students pursuing the Bachelor of Music Degree in Classical Performance or Music Education will be assigned an Italian song during Week 9. The student must learn, practice, and memorize the selection independently with no assistance from voice instructors, accompanists, coaches, or other faculty.

*WORD FOR WORD TRANSLATION: At the audition, faculty on the jury will ask you what certain Italian words mean in English. They will also ask you to say the Italian word equivalent when given the English meaning. All words will be from your assigned song.

Performance Commercial

Voice Performance (Commercial) students will prepare seven songs (at least one should demonstrate microphone technique) to include:

1. One art song in Italian or English
2. #One classic pop ballad
3. #One classic rock or R & B song
4. #One classic country or folk/acoustic song
5. #One jazz song
6. One contemporary Musical Theatre song or contemporary popular song in Spanish or Brazilian Portuguese
7. INDEPENDENT COMMERCIAL SONG*

* You may substitute another song from an area of commercial music in which you are interested. Only one of these selections may be substituted. This must be approved ahead of time.

*Students pursuing the Bachelor of Music Degree in Commercial Performance (Voice) will be assigned a commercial / classic/ pop style song in a language other than English during Week 9. The student must learn, practice, and memorize the selection independently with no assistance from voice instructors, accompanists, coaches, or other faculty.

*WORD FOR WORD TRANSLATION: At the audition, faculty on the jury will ask you what certain non-English words mean in English. They will also ask you to say the other-language word when given the English meaning. All words will be from your assigned song.

Evaluation for Independent Song Preparation:
- Complete memorization
- Good Diction
- Precise Rhythm
- Accurate Melody
- Secure entrances
- Appropriate Style
- Knowledge of translation
- Delivery of text artistically
- Artistic singing
- Indication that student is capable of learning repertoire quickly and accurately

Overall Upper Division Evaluation:
- Performance of all repertoire fully memorized/performance ready
- Good Diction for all languages and styles represented
- Precise Rhythm
- Accurate Melody
- Appropriate Style
- Delivery of text with appropriate affect
- Artistic singing
- Evidence of full understanding of each word and phrase through performance delivery
- Evidence of ensemble with accompanist indicating attendance at all coachings
- Indication that student is capable of learning a variety of repertoire
- Demonstration that the student will be able to perform a satisfactory, high-quality junior recital and senior recital required for the Bachelor of Music degree (a professional degree program).

“The secret of getting ahead is getting started. The secret of getting started is breaking your complex, overwhelming tasks into smaller manageable tasks, and then starting on the first one.”

Junior Recitals

Bachelor of Music Program: MU 3901
Classical Vocal Performance
Commercial Vocal Performance

Each Vocal Performance (Classical / Commercial) music major in the Bachelor of Music program must complete a successful Junior Recital. This project is a pre-cursor to the longer, more advanced capstone Senior Recital. Requirements for each recital include preparation and presentation of a printed program with program notes and/or translations prepared by the student in consultation with the studio teacher. The draft must be proofed by your studio instructor or the recital supervisor two (2) weeks in advance of the pre-recital (which will take place during Performance Seminar class). The recitalist should immediately implement suggested edits and have the program ready to print at the time of the pre-recital.

Juries and Repertoire during the year of the Junior Recital

Scheduling
You must attend the Recital Planning Meeting in the Spring for all recitals planned for the subsequent academic year. Faculty will assign your presentation date and time during the summer of the year preceding your presentation. If you are unable to complete your project on the assigned date for any reason, you will be moved to the following academic year.

The pre-recital audition will be scheduled and take place during Performance Seminar no later than four weeks before your scheduled Junior Recital. At this point, the recital should be performance-ready.

Furthermore, you will need to turn in all required documentation at the Performance Seminar pre-recital audition, attend all studio lessons, and attend meetings with the Recital Supervisor (Voice Area Coordinator). You must submit a ready-to-print recital program. Your attention to and preparation for these important intermediate dates is part of the “timeliness” part of your grade. See the Recital Approval Form for further information. See Appendix F at the back of this handbook.

Performance
The Junior Recital will consist of 20-25 minutes of repertoire. Two students will be assigned to each recital. Repertoire should be appropriate to your major, and determined through planning with the studio teacher and student.

Supervision
Junior Recital supervision shall consist of a full-time faculty member assigned to your specific emphasis area (Voice Area Coordinator) and student’s instructor. Share your ideas about the project with them. Refine your ideas and those suggested to you by the members of the faculty. The supervisor of your recital will be responsible for all direct communication with you during the planning and implementing of your Junior Recital and for administering your grade.

Pre-Recital Jury/Rehearsals
A Pre-Recital audition during Performance Seminar is mandatory for all Junior Recitals. Rehearsals for recitals normally take place during student’s studio lesson times, and during weekly coachings and individual practice sessions. If chamber ensembles or small groups/bands are involved on recitals, rehearsals may need to be coordinated with the staff technician and the studio teacher. The dress rehearsal for a recital is coordinated by the student and studio teacher, the technician, and the accompanist playing for your recital. The studio teacher MUST attend the dress rehearsal of the recital; hence, the date and time should be planned accordingly.

Programs
The department does not provide/print/copy programs for Junior Recitals. If you are timely with your preparation, you will be permitted to use the department copy machine to make copies for your recital. Keep in mind, timeliness is part of the final grade for Junior Recital.

Evaluation
Each Junior Recital will be evaluated based upon the following elements:

1. Final Performance or Presentation (50% of grade)
2. Timeliness of Project including following the guidelines of the Qualifying Review or Recital Approval documents and completing assignments made by the committee or studio teacher (50% of grade). This includes a ready-to-print program four weeks prior to the recital. First drafts should be submitted well before this deadline in order for the program to be proofed and corrected by this time.

Post-Junior Recital
If the Junior Recital takes place during the last three weeks of the semester, no jury is required. If the recital falls sooner in the semester (sooner than week 13, 14, 15), the student is required to continue lessons and perform a jury with no fewer than two (2) new selections.

If the junior recital falls within the last three weeks of the semester, the student is required to continue to attend Performance Seminar and will be assigned a small project by the instructor. In addition, all Performance Seminar work is due as stated on the syllabus. A jury will not be required if the recital falls within the last three weeks of the semester (during week 13, 14, or 15).

If I don’t practice for a day, I know it. If I don’t practice for two days, the critics know it. And if I don’t practice for three days, the public knows it.” -Louis Armstrong
Senior Recitals

Bachelor of Music Program: MU 4621
Classical Vocal Performance
Commercial Vocal Performance
Music Education/Pedagogy

Preparation and Performance
Each Performance (Voice) and Music Education (Voice) music major must complete a senior recital/project. This project should demonstrate a synthesis of all the knowledge the student has learned throughout his or her college career. The project should also prove that the student is ready to move forward academically, whether by entering graduate or professional school, pursuing a credential, or entering the work force. Music Education majors may present a recital, a presentation, or a combination of the two under the direction of the committee chair and the studio teacher.

The successful completion of a capstone recital or project is a vigorous and long process that takes at least one academic year. Students are required to envision, conceptualize, plan and execute their projects to the best of their abilities.

Juries and Repertoire during the year of the Senior Recital
Senior Recitalists are required to fulfill the minimum requirement of number of repertoire selections (6 new songs) during the semester before their Senior Recital. See Post-Recital information at the end of this “Senior Recitals” section for information about repertoire and juries during the semester of the recital.

Committees
Each Senior Recital Committee shall consist of one or two full-time faculty members assigned to your specific emphasis area with the part-time studio teacher included as needed. Share your ideas about the project with them. Refine your ideas and those suggested to you by the members of the faculty Draft/Description of project section of the Senior Project Form. The chair of your committee will be responsible for all direct communication with you during the planning and implementing of your senior project and for administering your grade.

Scheduling and Paperwork
Faculty will assign your committee members and chair as well as your presentation date and time during the summer of the year preceding your presentation. If you are unable to complete your project on the assigned date for whatever reason, you will be moved to the following academic year for final presentation.

You will work with your committee to set dates for your Pre-Recital Jury and dress rehearsal. Furthermore, you will need to turn in all required documentation by due dates and attend all studio lessons with your Studio Voice instructor, and meetings with your committee chair. Your attention to and preparation for these important intermediate dates is part of the “timeliness” part of your grade. See the Recital Approval Form for further information (Appendix F at the end of this handbook and online).

Program Draft and Edited/Corrected Program at Pre-Recital
You must submit a draft of your program, including repertoire, composers, dates, translations, and program notes two weeks prior to your pre-recital. Ask your Studio Instructor if they will be proofing it, or if they would like you to work with the Recital Supervisor for proofing. You should immediately implement the edits and prepare a quality program to present at your pre-recital. Your attention to and preparation for these important intermediate dates is part of the “timeliness” part of your grade.

Recitals/Pre-Recital Jury/Rehearsals
Senior Recitals are specifically for Performance emphasis music majors and are approximately 60 minutes in length. Music Education students may choose to give a recital as all or a portion of their senior project. The recital repertoire must be approved by the studio teacher in conjunction with the student’s committee chair. This program will be listed on the Senior Project Form. Each recital will have a printed program with program notes and/or translations written in consultation with the studio teacher.

A Pre-Recital Jury is mandatory for all Senior Recitals. See the “Recital Preparation and Approval Form” for detailed information.

Rehearsals for recitals normally take place during student’s studio lesson times, and during weekly coachings and individual practice sessions, but if chamber ensembles or small groups/bands are involved on recitals, rehearsals may need to be coordinated with the staff technician and the studio teacher. The dress rehearsal for a recital is coordinated by the student and studio teacher, the technician, and the accompanist (if s/he is performing on your recital). The studio teacher MUST attend the dress rehearsal of the recital.

Evaluation
Each Senior Recital/Project will be evaluated based upon the following elements:

1. Final Performance or Presentation (55% of grade)
2. Timeliness of Project including following the guidelines of the Qualifying Review or Recital Approval documents and completing assignments made by the committee or studio teacher (35% of grade)
3. Senior Exit Essay (10% of grade) See page 16.

Juries during Semester of Senior Recital
If the Senior Recital takes place during the last five weeks of the semester (week 11, 12, 13, 14, or 15), no jury is required. The student is encouraged to focus on the Senior Exit Essay. Attendance at Performance Seminar is required, and a small project may be assigned by the instructor. If the recital falls sooner in the semester (sooner than the last five weeks), the student is required to continue lessons and perform a jury with no fewer than two (2) new selections.

Recital Preparation Timeline (based on a spring semester recital; if performing in an earlier semester, make adjustments as needed)

Spring Semester before final year
1. Begin thinking about and plan your recital repertoire. Listen to many performances of literature for your instrument to help you in selecting repertoire that is appropriate for your level and for a senior recital. Develop a practice and lesson plan for summer.
2. Seek out advice and guidance from your teacher to shape your program.

Fall Semester of final year
1. Assuming your recital is in spring semester, you should make final selections and develop a regular practice routine for learning your recital repertoire. If your recital is in the fall semester, this should have been done the previous spring or during the summer.
2. Attend your lessons regularly. Perform recital repertoire in Performance Seminar as often as possible.

3. If your committee chair is NOT your studio teacher, make sure you keep him or her informed of your preparation process.
4. Meet with your committee at least once during the semester, before your pre-recital jury to apprise them of how the project is progressing.
5. Seek out performance opportunities on and off campus; local nursing homes, churches, other schools, family gatherings, Music Hour, etc.
6. Work with your studio teacher or committee chair to develop your program draft complete with program notes and translations where necessary.
7. Enroll in MU 4610 for Studio during the semester of your Senior Recital. Enroll in 4621: Senior Recital as well for the semester in which you are presenting your recital.
8. Schedule your dress rehearsal now if your recital is within the first 8 weeks of the upcoming semester.

Spring Semester of final year

1. Schedule your pre-recital jury for 4 weeks before your recital date. Your entire committee must attend the pre-recital jury as well as any guest artists who may be performing on your recital. A draft of your program and publicity flyer must be submitted at that time for approval.
2. Schedule your dress rehearsal if you have not already done so. Your studio teacher must attend the dress rehearsal.
3. Continue with your practice and performance routines. Select your attire for the performance in consultation with your studio teacher.
4. Two weeks before the performance, post your flyers in the department and submit your final program to the publicity office.
5. If possible, it is highly recommended that you take off work or limit work hours to a minimum during the week of your performance. You want to be rested and to have time to practice and do any last minute preparation. You want to be healthy and have the time to focus on your performance.
6. Perform your dress rehearsal 2 or 3 days before the recital. Wear your performance shoes. Receive feedback from your teacher. Reflect and make corrections during the final days before the performance.
7. Perform your recital! Your family may provide a reception following your program.
8. Meet with your committee approximately 1-2 weeks following your recital to evaluate the experience and receive your final grade.

FAQ

1. “How long is the recital?”
   Each recital is about one hour to one hour plus 15 minutes long. This includes a 10-minute intermission.

2. “How should I dress?”
   You should dress in a professional manner appropriate for your particular area of expertise. Discuss your attire with your teacher for suggestions.

3. “Can someone assist me on my recital?”
   Your studio teacher has the final word on repertoire for the recital. It is often to the benefit of the student to include chamber music, duets, or ensembles as part of the recital program.

4. “What exactly happens during the pre-recital jury?”
   During the pre-recital jury, you will present your program to the committee. Usually the entire recital is not performed, but the studio teacher takes the lead in determining what segments or excerpts will be performed. The committee must determine if you will be prepared for a public performance in approximately 4 weeks from this jury.
5. “What happens if I fail the pre-recital jury?”
As this is your capstone project, you should never be in a position to fail MU 4621. If you have closely followed instructions, and maintained good practice and performance routines, it is unlikely that you will fail. Sometimes however, there may be suggestions on the order of the music or in extreme cases, suggestions to remove something from the program that is not up to par. If the student is clearly not prepared, then failing the pre-recital jury means that you receive an F for MU 4621. You would need to re-register for the class in a subsequent year and follow through with the entire process again.

Post-Recital Receptions

If you wish to have a post-recital reception (outside on the patio near the recital hall, or near the sofas inside), staff members do not assist with this. We can provide information about obtaining tables for you.

You may also investigate using the Art Gallery space (or patio) on the near end of the BSC

“There will never come a time when you don’t have to practice.”

-J.J. Johnson
An important part of every phase of our lives is reflection on what we’ve learned, what we’ve accomplished, and how we’ve changed. In this reflective process, we also look a little further down the path we are traveling; sometimes we change paths as a result of the process.

For this reason, one culminating project of this program is a reflective essay. There are three primary objectives for this assignment:
1. for you to demonstrate that you can write clearly and communicate effectively.
2. for you to consider what have been the most important things you learned from your time at Cal Poly Pomona; and
3. for you to take that understanding and project it into your future: where do you expect this to lead?

A successful essay will:
• be free of distracting errors in spelling, grammar or syntax
• be organized in a way that shows consideration of the flow of the essay and reflects multiple drafts and revisions
• trace your progress through the 4 core threads of the music program: music theory and musicianship, ensemble performance, music history and literatures, and music technology. You do not need to focus on each individual course, but rather the threads (listed above) that weave the tapestry of music.
• draw connections between the core threads and the specialty courses of your particular emphasis area, discussing how you have achieved expertise and experience in your chosen field.
• discuss the experiences of sharing music with the broader community—service learning and community engagement. How did these experiences influence your learning process and achievements?
• discuss your immediate plans for life beyond CPP, connecting how you expect to use what you have learned here in your work out there.
• engage the reader in 9-11 double-spaced pages of 12-point Helvetica, Arial, or Times New Roman font with 1” margins.

Please examine the rubric for grading criteria.

Accompanist Information and Policies

Cal Poly Pomona Music Department provides a Staff Accompanist to play for Studio Students, Choirs, Ensembles, and Classes.

Information can be found posted on the Accompanists' Studio Door—Room 132.

The Staff Accompanist will provide coaching for ensemble and collaboration. These are not lessons, but coachings—an opportunity to understand the music fully, practice ensemble and prepare for performances and juries. Your studio voice teacher will work with you for repertoire selection and for all vocal technique work.

It is a privilege to have an accompanist available for your practice. Many schools do not offer an accompanist free of charge to the student.

Required coaching as stated below will be calculated into your Studio Voice grade.

The Staff Accompanist will provide coaching to Voice Studio students as follows:
[This policy will vary based upon Studio Voice enrollment.]

MU 1770: Students are required to meet one time per week. Duration of coachings for each semester is determined by number of students. Coachings will either be 20 minutes or 30 minutes weekly. See the postings on the door of Studio 132 for detail at the start of each semester.

MU 1811: The accompanist will attend the second half hour of each MU 1811 Studio Voice Student's lesson. There will be a few open times set aside in the accompanist's schedule for you to sign up for additional time, but this is for occasional meetings, not regularly/not weekly. Sign up on Monday mornings on the sign up on the door of Studio 132 for these coaching times.

MU 3770: Students are required to meet with the accompanist one time per week outside of lesson time. You must sign up on the schedule on the door of Studio 132 at the start of the semester. In addition, the accompanist will attend the 2nd half hour of each MU 3770 Studio Voice Student's lesson.

MU 3811: Students are required to meet with the accompanist one time per week outside of lesson time. You must sign up on the schedule on the door of Studio 132 at the start of the semester. In addition, the accompanist will attend the 2nd half hour of each MU 3811 Studio Voice Student’s lesson.
INTRODUCTION

Working with a collaborative pianist/coach is a musical privilege, and a very important musical relationship. It fosters better musicianship, chamber music skills, and camaraderie. The more you put into it, the more you will get out of it.

SCHEDULING

1. The accompanist’s time is very limited. Therefore, it is your responsibility to contact the accompanist and make sure they have a scheduled time to meet for rehearsals no later than the first day of performance seminar. If Dr. Garnica is unavailable during any of the student’s preferred times, the student may be assigned to work with another accompanist.

2. Priority of the accompanist’s schedule will be given as follows:
   a. Playing for classes
   b. Vocal/instrumental applied lessons
   c. Rehearsing with performance/education majors
   d. Rehearsing with MIS majors

3. If you are not required to rehearse with your pianist every week (instrumentalists), scheduling may be done on an as need basis, as availability permits. Please plan accordingly.

4. Please notify your accompanist at least 24 hours in advance if you cancel a rehearsal. We understand this isn’t always possible with unexpected emergencies. But as a courtesy, please communicate with your pianist, as it may affect your attendance grade.

ATTENDANCE

It is very important that you respect the opportunity to meet with your accompanist. It is a musical privilege that isn’t afforded to all music departments.

Attendance is part of your overall studio grade (10%) and will be taken each time you meet with your pianist. You will be marked as either present or absent. If you are absent, the pianist will try to make up the rehearsal, but as time is limited, this may not be always possible. If your pianist is absent, it will not count against you. Examples of missing rehearsals:

Dr. Garnica will be unavailable for some coachings due to other CPP music events. If this affects your regularly scheduled coaching time, see door of 132 for a list of dates/times for make-up coachings. Please sign up to reschedule.

1. Student meets with pianist every week of the semester = 15/15
2. Pianist is unable to rehearse for two weeks throughout the semester = 13/13
3. Student misses two rehearsals, pianist misses one rehearsal = 13/14
MUSIC PREPARATION

1. If using original copies, book must be able to lay open flat on the piano.
2. Hand-written music (whether original or photocopy) will be used at the discretion of the pianist. If not legible, other arrangements must be made.
3. All photocopied music must be contained within a single, plain, black, 3-ring binder, no later than week 2. Usually a ½-inch to 1-inch thickness is enough, depending on quantity of music.
   a. Loose sheets of music are unacceptable and will not be used.
   b. Plastic sleeves are not allowed, as they can cause glare, and the accompanist cannot make markings on the music.
   c. Music must not be cut-off on either the top end or the bottom end of the page.
4. All photocopied music must be single-sided, and taped back-to-back. NO STAPLES.
   A single piece of tape is required to wrap around the two pages (length-wise) at the very top, and at the very bottom.
5. If the music is exactly two pages in length, tape is not needed, and the first page must be on the left side, so as to avoid an unnecessary page turn.
6. If the music is three pages or more in length, please consider how the page turns line up regarding accompaniment difficulty. This will inform you as to whether the music should begin on the left side of the page, or the right side of the page. If unsure, please consult with your pianist.
7. Feel free to add a table of contents, tabs, or otherwise organize your music folder as you wish, by composer/language/etc. While this is not mandatory, it is greatly appreciated and will help facilitate rehearsals. Let your inner scrapbooking come out!

PERFORMANCE SEMINAR-VOICE

You should have rehearsed Performance Seminar repertoire with accompanist at least twice before each of your scheduled Performance Seminar-Voice performances.

JURIES

You should have rehearsed ALL repertoire with accompanist before the week of juries. Double-check with your pianist to make sure they are available for your chosen jury time-slot. Sometimes your pianist will have to play for multiple juries in quick succession, possibly causing scheduling conflicts.

RECITALS

Your pianist will be available for a pre-recital and dress rehearsal for one hour. It is best to schedule these during your lesson hour with your teacher present, if possible.

If the pianist cannot stay the full length, he/she will stay as long as possible before their next appointment/rehearsal, etc. It is possible your pianist may not be able to rehearse or attend your lesson on account of playing for another student’s pre-recital or dress rehearsal.

Check if your pianist needs a page-turner before the recital. It is an often overlooked, but important factor to a successful recital.

“Complaints, drama, victim mentality, whining, blaming, and all other excuses have never gotten you even a single step closer to your goals or dreams. Let go...Let go of the delusion that you deserve better and go earn it! Today is a new day!”

Student Access, Success, Hardship, & Resources:

Cal Poly Pomona is committed to student access and success. There are many resources you may rely on in the event you need additional support, many of which are offered through the Learning Resource Center. For more information, see:

http://www.cpp.edu/~studentsuccess/index.shtml

• Learning Resource Center (LRC): Offers tutoring (week 2 - finals), writing help, workshops, test preparation, & guidance with study skills & stress management.

  Location: University Library (building 15), second floor, rooms 2919 & 2921

  Phone: 909-869-3502

  Email: lrc@cpp.edu

  Web: http://www.cpp.edu/~lrc/student-resources.shtml

• Disability Resource Center (DRC) and ARCHES: Coordinate course accommodations.

  Location: Building 9, Room 103

  Phone: 909-869-3333

  Email: drc@cpp.edu

  Web: https://www.cpp.edu/~drc/index.shtml

• Test Center: You may be able to make up an exam if it is missed due to an emergency or approved reason. Online appointments may be made with approval from Dr. Vallejo.

  Web: https://www.cpp.edu/~testcenter/tests/proctored-cpp.shtml

• Advising Centers (e.g., CLASS Student Success Center): If you have advising, curriculum, or course-related questions, you may check in with one of our campus' Student Success Centers. It is recommended you meet with the center related to your home college and department.

  Web: http://www.cpp.edu/~studentsuccessdirectories/advising-directory.shtml

• DACA / Bronco Dreamers: Offers support for DACA students.
