The Cal Poly Pomona Music Department annual end of the year celebration is around the corner and this year's theme is inspired by the song "Celebrate Me Home" by Kenny Loggins. It represents the music alumni coming back to their second home and being able to reunite with classmates and professors, as well as meet current music students.

The Mixer portion of the night will begin at 6:30 p.m. with music provided by M.U.S.E. student club members (Music Uniting Student Entertainers) and will include special guest speakers and light refreshments.

More than thirty music alum from the last four decades will take the stage at 8:00pm for the Alumni Concert to benefit a new Alumni Scholarship. The concert features guitarists, violinist, singer/songwriters, pianists, vocalists, a sax quartet, and a Jazz Band.

Tickets for the Mixer and Concert are $15 each or together for a combined price of $20. Buy tickets at cspomona.tix.com or the Music Box Office #24-188. Discounted rates at the Kellogg West Lodge are available for rooms booked by May 22nd for those traveling a distance.
