Cal Poly Pomona Music Department Brings Back the Faculty & Staff Jamboree entitled “Friday Night Live” to benefit the All-Steinway School Initiative.

The Cal Poly Pomona music faculty and staff are excited to announce the return of the Faculty & Staff Jamboree on Friday, January 30th at 8:00pm in the Music Recital Hall.

The event titled “Friday Night Live” is a spoof on late night talk shows and features music faculty and staff on stage having fun and collaborating in light-hearted performances.

The ensemble cast is led by Kim Guenette as Host Kimmy Fallon, Dave Cahueque as Master of Ceremony Dave McMahon, and Dave Kopplin as Kwestlieb, Band Leader of “The Old Roots”, with performances by Janine Riveire, Susan Ali, Ana Maria Maldonado, Jenny Amaya, Janet Noll, Will Wright-Hooks, Iris Levine, Tom Luer, David Kopplin, Mark Converse, J. Michael O’Neal, Bill Schlitt, Linda Silva, Rickey Badua and more.

Music department publicist and event producer, Teresa Kelly, is thrilled to bring back the jamboree event. The first since 2007, “Friday Night Live” will be the 11th Jamboree the department has presented and the 5th that Kelly has produced. “The Jamboree provides students an opportunity to see their professors in a different way than in the classroom. It allows faculty and staff to collaborate and celebrate together with music and laughter. “Friday Night Live” will be full of surprises and is sure to be a fun and fabulous event.”

Tickets for the event are $15 general admission and $10 student admission and are available at the music box office Monday through Friday from 12-1pm, at the event, or online at cspomona.tix.com.

Proceeds will benefit the University’s All-Steinway School Initiative. For more information on the Initiative please visit our website at <http://www.cpp.edu/~class/music/giving/index.shtml>.
