

THE OFFICE OF NEW STUDENT PROGRAMS & FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

The Office of New Student Programs & Family Engagement equips students and their supporters with resources and connections to pursue a successful transition to CPP through their academic, personal, and professional goals

Engage

- Meet and have meaningful interactions with other students, faculty, staff, and administrators.
- Identify opportunities to engage fully in the university community.
- Communicate important campus updates via monthly newsletter and social media channels.
- Provide opportunities to connect and build a greater sense of community among supporters.

Office of New Student Programs &
Family Engagement
www.cpp.edu/orientation

Educate

- Understand how a CPP education prepares students to be engaged citizens of the world.
- Learn how high-impact practices allow students to grow personally and professionally.
- Learn key facts about CPP's history, campus culture, and traditions.
- Gain an understanding of academic expectations and campus resources to strengthen our student's support system.

Bronco Resource Hub
www.cpp.edu/orientation/resource-hub.shtml

Onboard

- Learn critical campus policies and key university deadlines.
- Identify strategies and resources that support academic success.
- Employ university tools to plan and meet academic goals.
- Connect supporters with the tools they need to help students as they transition to CPP.

Online Orientation
orientation.cpp.edu

