

PROJECT REBOUND

Mission

To facilitate pathways to higher education for currently and formerly incarcerated individuals, and, To support the academic success, professional development and reintegration of formerly incarcerated students at CPP.

Programming & Services

- Academic advisement and support (pre & post-admissions)
- Career Guidance & Workshops
- Employment, volunteer & leadership opportunities
- Staff and peer mentorship
- Financial supports (e.g., scholarships, basic needs)
- Dedicated campus advocate
- Community referrals (e.g., legal services, housing)
- Educational outreach within correctional facilities
- Safe & inclusive campus space
- Learn more at our website: www.cpp.edu/projectrebound

Get in Touch

If you or someone you know is formerly incarcerated and can benefit from our program, please refer them!

Executive Director, Dr. Melissa Barragan, mbarragan@cpp.edu

Program Coordinator, Priscilla Terriquez, pterriquez@cpp.edu

Outreach Coordinator, Charles Biddle, chbiddle@cpp.edu

