

2023 California Forum for Diversity in Graduate Education

Saturday, October 14, 2023 (9am-4pm)

University of San Francisco

Over 20 live sessions

150 recruiters especially wanting to meet YOU!

Open to:

Sophomores

Juniors

Seniors

Master's Candidates

 (minimum GPA of 3.0 recommended for all students)*

The forum will offer workshops on:

- How to Select, Apply to, and Prepare for Graduate School
- Demystifying the GRE
- Role of Undergraduate Research in Graduate Admissions
- How to Write a Winning Statement of Purpose
- Successful Strategies for Acquiring Strong Letters of Recommendation
- Keys to Success and Survival in Grad School
- Identifying Challenges and Finding Community for AB540 and Undocumented Students
- How to Finance Your Graduate Studies
- And more

And subject-specific workshops in:

- Behavioral Sciences
- Education
- Engineering and Computer Sciences
- Fine Arts & Humanities
- Health and Human Services
- Life Sciences
- Physical Sciences and Math
- Social Sciences

And access to an exclusive Recruiter Fair with 150 colleges and universities nationwide

Registration opens Sept. 5, 2023

PLUS - Dr. Negrón-Gonzales and Dr. Magdalena Barrera, authors of The Latinx Guide to Graduate School, will be present for book signing. First 200 students to visit their booth will get a free copy!

 @CalDiversityForum

 @CalDiversity

Student Registration QR Code

