The Kellogg Honors College (KHC) is a program for students interested in joining an inclusive learning community that nurtures their diverse talents, provides an enriching and innovative academic experience, and encourages them to get the most out of their education at Cal Poly Pomona. We welcome students from all majors and degree programs. Students may apply as incoming freshmen, incoming transfer students, or as sophomores. Our application period is open from February-March for Freshman and Transfers and May-June for Sophomores.

Who Are We?

Our Mission

The Kellogg Honors College cultivates students’ many forms of talent in an academically enriching environment within an inclusive and nurturing community. We motivate and prepare intellectually curious, civically engaged, lifelong learners.

Our Vision

We will be a college that fosters an environment, community, and foundation where personal growth, self-awareness, and professional confidence is coupled with academic excellence, innovation, and career readiness to prepare self-aware, civically engaged, visionary, global citizens.

Program Requirements

- Take honors courses. These are taught by some of our most talented faculty and are capped at 15-20 students per section. Our courses are part of the General Education curriculum.
  - Freshman take 7
  - Sophomores take 5
  - Transfers take 4

- Civic Engagement. Students will be required to participate in community service activities every year. We provide many opportunities both on and off campus.

- Capstone Research Project. Students will conduct an independent research project under the guidance of a faculty mentor and present their research at our annual symposium.

- Maintain an average cumulative 3.3 GPA.
