

HISSEMA 2016

Hannover International Summer School of Economics and Management

Study abroad
in Germany

July 12th
– August 31st, 2016

The Hannover International Summer School of Economics and Management (HISSEMA) is in its thirteenth year of operation. Up to now, over 200 international students, especially from the United States, have participated in the HISSEMA. The program is completely conducted in English.

When

July 12th – August 31st,
2016

Where

At the School of Economics and Management of the Leibniz Universität Hannover. Hannover is a mid-size northern German town, located not far from Berlin or Hamburg.

Courses

HISSEMA offers lectures in International Management and Business Administration with topics such as the German Economy, its integration into the European Union and the World Economy. The program is supplemented by lectures on the "German Culture, Business and Language".

All courses are worth 5 Creditpoints (ETCS). However, acknowledgement of credit hours depends on regulations at your home university.

Requirements

At least two years of academic study in Business or Economics.

Application Deadline

April 30th, 2016

Contact Information

CPP International Center

Kraig Walkup
exchangeprograms@cpp.edu

For further Information visit the Homepage of the HISSEMA:

www.wiwi.uni-hannover.de/hissema.html?&L=1