Judicial Internship Applications now open

Are you thinking about being a lawyer, interested in the legal system or social justice? See the courts in action! Meet judges, district attorneys and public defenders; watch criminal cases, drug cases, juvenile court, and more!

Requirements: You must commit to 8-10 hours per week in the Spring 2026 semester. This is a 3-unit course and will meet on Monday and Wednesday morning (9 am – 12 pm) at the Pomona courthouse and every other Friday (9-10.30 am) virtually. You will also need to have a CPP professor as a reference and be interviewed by the Internship selection committee.

Applications are now open and will close on Friday, October 24. Submit your application here: https://cpp.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6gnPkyRFXhFD4ZU

Please contact Prof. Menounou at emenounou@cpp.edu if you have any questions about the internship or the application process.

Weglyn Endowed Chair for Multicultural Studies: Exploring Careers in Social Justice and the Law

Passionate about using the law to create change? Join us for an inspiring panel where leaders from Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County, Inner City Law, the California Minority Counsel Program, Mental Health Advocacy Services, and more will share their journeys. Learn how to build a career in the legal profession that champions equity, justice, and community impact.

The event will be held on October 14, from 12 to 1.30 pm at the CPP University Library Special Events Room (15-4929). The event will also be simulcast by zoom here:
