CPP Career Center Graduate and Professional School Fair

The Career Center is hosting a Graduate & Professional School Fair on Tuesday, October 7, from 11 am to 2 pm at the University Quad. The following law schools will be on campus for the Fair: Chapman University – Fowler School of Law; Loyola Law School; McGeorge School of Law; Southwestern School of Law; University of California San Francisco; University of San Francisco School of Law.

Weglyn Endowed Chair for Multicultural Studies: Exploring Careers in Social Justice and the Law

Passionate about using the law to create change? Join us for an inspiring panel where leaders from Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County, Inner City Law, the California

Minority Counsel Program, Mental Health Advocacy Services, and more will share their journeys. Learn how to build a career in the legal profession that champions equity, justice, and community impact.

The event will be held on October 14, from 12 to 1.30 pm at the CPP University Library Special Events Room (15-4929). The event will also be simulcast by zoom here:

CLASS Pre-Law Student Society: Crafting an Engaging Personal Statement

Applying to law school? This workshop is for you! CLASS Political Science alumna Daniela Ulloa, currently attending California Western School of Law in San Diego, will join us to discuss how to craft a great personal statement.

The event will be held on October 16 from 12 to 1 pm. Location TBA soon.

CLASS Pre-Law Student Society: Preparing for the LSAC Law School Forum

If you are thinking about or planning to attend the LSAC Law School Forum in Los Angeles, this event is for you! Dr. Hanink will join us to provide information about the Forum, and many tips on how to get the most out of your attendance.

The event will be held on October 23, from 12 to 1 pm. Location TBA soon.

LSAC Law School Forum

Each year, LSAC Law School Forums serve as invaluable opportunities for aspiring law students to learn about law school and connect with law school representatives. By attending an LSAC Law School Forum, you will be able to connect directly with law school representatives from across North America, learn about financial aid and the law school admission process, and get answers to any questions you may have.

If you are thinking about law school, we encourage you to attend this engaging live event. The Los Angeles LSAC Law School Forum will be held on Saturday, October 25, from 10 am to 4 pm at the Westin Bonaventure Hotel.

CLEO Road to Law School

Designed to identify, motivate and prepare students for a career in the legal profession.

Committed students can learn how to successfully navigate the law school admission process and underwrite their success in law school by participating in the College Scholars program.

For Freshmen & Sophomores: The Road to Law School seminar aims to provide Freshmen an overview of the key components of the law school application process. View information and register here.

For Juniors, Seniors/Post Graduates: Jumpstart the LSAT seminar aims to help participants understand the importance of systematic and timely preparation for the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). View information and register here.

Judicial Internship applications opening on Friday, October 10

Are you thinking about being a lawyer, interested in the legal system or social justice? See the courts in action! Meet judges, district attorneys and public defenders; watch criminal cases, drug cases, juvenile court, and more!

Requirements: You must commit to 8-10 hours per week in the Spring 2026 semester. This is a 3-unit course and will meet on Monday and Wednesday morning (9 am – 12 pm) at the Pomona courthouse and every other Friday (9-10.30 am) virtually. You will also need to have a CPP professor as a reference and be interviewed by the Internship selection committee.

Applications for the internship will open on Friday, October 10 and close on Friday, October 24. Please contact Prof. Menounou at emenounou@cpp.edu if you have any questions about the internship or the application process.
