Judicial Internship applications opening today, October 9

Are you thinking about being a lawyer, interested in the legal system or social justice? See the courts in action! Meet judges, district attorneys and public defenders; watch criminal cases, drug cases, juvenile court, and more!
Requirements: You must commit to 8-10 hours per week in the Spring 2027 semester. This is a 3-unit course and will meet on Monday and Wednesday morning (9 am – 12 pm) at the Pomona courthouse and every other Friday (9-10.30 am) virtually. You will also need to have a CPP professor as a reference and be interviewed by the internship selection committee.
Applications for the internship are opening today, Friday, October 9 and will close on Friday, October 30th at 5 pm.
Please contact Prof. Menounou at emenounou@cpp.edu if you have any questions about the internship or the application process.
Submit your application on Qualtrics.

Ms. JD Pre-Law Application Accelerator; October 16 and 17 (virtual)

This free, two-day virtual conference is designed to help students stand out in the competitive law school admissions process. Over the course of this immersive experience, students will gain insider knowledge from law school admissions professionals, pre-law advisors, and industry leaders who are here to help them succeed. Students will learn how to secure strong, compelling letters of recommendation; craft a personal statement that tells your story with impact; build a resume that highlights your strengths; navigate the application process with confidence.
The virtual event will be held on Friday, October 16 and Saturday, October 17 from 12 pm to 3 pm ET.
You can find more information and register here.

CLASS Pre-Law Student Society: Preparing for the LSAC Law School Forum

If you are thinking about, or planning to attend the LSAC Law School Forum in Los Angeles, this event is for you! Dr. Hanink will join us to provide information about the forum and many tips on how to get the most out of your attendance.
The event will be held on October 20, from 12 to 1 pm. Location TBA soon (hybrid).

CLEO Road to Law School; October 31 (virtual)

Designed to identify, motivate and prepare students for a career in the legal profession. Committed students can learn how to successfully navigate the law school admission process and underwrite their success in law school by participating in the College Scholars program. The workshop is held virtually on Saturday, October 31 and registration is $20.
For Freshmen & Sophomores: The Road to Law School seminar aims to provide Freshmen an overview of the key components of the law school application process. View information and register here.
For Juniors, Seniors/Post Graduates: Jumpstart the LSAT seminar aims to help participants understand the importance of systematic and timely preparation for the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). View information and register here.

PreLaw Pathways Law School Admissions Panel; November 5 (virtual)

CPP PreLaw Pathways is hosting a law school admissions panel with University of San Francisco School of Law, California Western School of Law, Chapman University Fowler School of Law, LMU Loyola Law School, and UC Irvine School of Law. Join a panel of admissions representatives as they discuss the application process and what makes a great law school student!
This virtual event will be held on Thursday, November 5 from 12 pm to 1 pm.
You can register for the panel here.

LSAC Law School Forum; November 7 (in person)

Every year, LSAC Law School Forums serve as invaluable opportunities for aspiring law students to learn about law school and connect with law school representatives. By attending an LSAC Law School Forum, you will be able to connect directly with law school representatives from across North America, learn about financial aid and the law school admission process, and get answers to any questions you may have.
If you are thinking about law school, we encourage you to attend this engaging live event. The Los Angeles LSAC Law School Forum will be held on Saturday, November 7 in Los Angeles.
You can register to attend here.
