

Happy Holidays from Cal Poly Pomona December 2022

[President Coley]

As the semester winds down, Ron and I want to wish you a restful and joyous winter break and holiday season with loved ones.

And I want to thank you—our students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends. Cal Poly Pomona is a distinctive and impactful university that continues to transform lives because of each of you.

And for your perseverance, commitment and collegiality, I cannot thank you enough. For all the times that you consistently go the extra mile, applying rigor to your studies, nourishing our culture of care, and showing generosity in ways big and small, I say most sincerely, thank you.

We hope that as this year closes and a new one begins, you will find time to relax, and connect with family and friends.

We wish you peace and good health during this season of reflection and celebration and a happy and safe new year.

[President Coley and Mr. Coley]

Happy holidays!
