

The Proper Treatment of Laboratory Animals

The University and its administrators have made significant efforts to assure proper treatment of animals. All uses of vertebrate animals in research and instruction at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, have been approved by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC).

Situations may arise for various reasons that deviate from approved protocols and campus policy (either mistreatment of animals or noncompliance with an approved animal use protocol). If you have been unsuccessful in speaking with the person or persons involved, or if you feel uncomfortable speaking with these individuals, please take your cares and concerns to the appropriate responsible persons:

Dr. Craig LaMunyon, Associate Vice President for Research, (909) 869-2273
Dr. Juanita Jellyman, IACUC Chair (909) 869-4417
Dr. Melody Wallace, University Veterinarian, (909) 815-1328
Ms. Maya Monges-Hernandez, Compliance Associate (909) 869 4215

Or, if you feel the need for a higher authority, go to your college Dean:

College of Letters, Arts, and Social Sciences: (909) 869-3500
College of Agriculture: (909) 869-2200
College of Science: (909) 869-3600
College of Engineering: (909) 869-2472
College of Education: (909) 869-2307

IN DOING SO YOU ARE ASSURED OF THE FOLLOWING:

- 1) The Administration of California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, has a true desire to investigate allegations of mistreatment or noncompliance and has adopted this reporting mechanism to facilitate these reports, and
- 2) You are protected from detrimental consequences of this report by Federal Regulations, specifically: Title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 2, Subpart C 2.32 (c) (4), administered by the United States Department of Agriculture.
