

Elicit Question Cards: Earth's Changing Surface

Why do you think the surface of Earth isn't totally flat?	How would you describe the surface of Earth where you live?
After a heavy rain, you might see a pile of mud in the middle of the street. Where did the mud come from? How did it get into the middle of the street?	In what ways do rivers cause changes on Earth's surface?
Sometimes, big bulldozers move soil or dirt from one place to another. Does anything in nature move soil or dirt from one place to another? How do you know?	Do mountains ever change? Do they ever become taller or shorter?
Can mountains grow so tall they reach outer space? Why or why not?	Why do you think there are hills in some places and flat areas in other places on Earth's surface?