BACKGROUND: The Department of English and Foreign Languages has proposed to change a minor name from “Chinese Studies Minor” to “Chinese Minor” for the semesters. This is a converted minor, the referral is for name change only.

The department proposed this name change to better reflect the nature of the curriculum for the minor.

RESOURCES CONSULTED:

Deans
Associate Deans
Department Chairs
All Faculty

DISCUSSION:

Before reaching the Academic Programs Committee, this program was reviewed by the College Curriculum Committee in the College of Letters Arts and Social Sciences as well as the Dean of CLASS and the Office of Academic Programs. All concerns raised at those levels were addressed. The Academic Programs Committee then conducted campus-wide consultation, as well as its own review of the program. No concerns were raised.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Academic Programs Committee recommends approval the minor name from “Chinese Studies Minor” to “Chinese Minor” for the semesters.

Program Description	Mission StatementMinor in a language prepares students for lifelong learning, leadership, and careers in a multicultural world. The minor offers intellectual inquiry within the discipline that broadens and complements students' major field of study. As an integral part of these programs, students develop an understanding of the language and the cultural world in which it thrives to gain a fuller understanding of their own culture. In addition, coursework help shape student writing, oral communication, and critical thinking skills. Learning Outcomes Communicate orally in Chinese in real-life situations at the ACTFL intermediate proficiency level. Communicate in writing in Chinese at the ACTFL intermediate proficiency level with minimal errors in grammar, spelling, and the mechanics of writing. Read critically, interpret analytically, and write coherently about literatures produced in Chinese and demonstrate knowledge about fundamental principles of the language. Demonstrate understanding and appreciation of the cultural values of Chinese-speaking peoples.
