Commencement Response

On Oct 23rd , we held our weekly BOD. We were joined by VPUA Teeves & the commencement planning team.

In our meeting these points were reiterated...

- Dissatifaction with date changes
- Fear that loved ones would be unable to attend
- Feeling devalued for having smaler graduation classes
- Lack of student input
- Loss of tradition & The Once in a Lifetime Feeling

Student Petition: 1.2k+ signatures

Highlighted Service!

The CPP Poly Pantry is a THE campus resource that helps support students by providing access to free food, basic necessities, and other essential resources. By operating, students who may be experiencing food insecurity or financial challenges, the Poly Pantry helps ensure that students can focus on their education and well-being without having to choose between their basic needs and academic success.

we never turn anyone away! walk - ins will ALWAYS be accepted :)!

Highlighted Service²!

An Additional Budget Request (ABR) asks ASI for funding from the New Programs and Augmentation (NP&A) fund.
se an ABR when your registered Student Club or Council has an approved annual allocation, but that allocation is insufficient for ar eligible conference, competition, program, or event.
An ABR is not guaranteed funding. Every request is reviewed for eligibility, documentation, available NP&A funds, and final approval.
