

S E C T I O N

05

YOUR CPP TOOLKIT: RESOURCES PICKED JUST FOR YOU

Health & Wellbeing

Student Health Services

Building 46
Health@cpp.edu
(909) 869-5272

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

Building 66 Room 116
caps@cpp.edu
(909) 869-3220

Care Center

Building 97 1st floor
carecenter@cpp.edu
(909) 869-5071

- Clothes Closet
- Cap and Gown Assistance
- Basic Needs Grant

Poly Pantry

Building 35 Room 1216
Polypantry@cpp.edu
(909) 869-5472

Survivor Advocacy Services

Building 66 Room 117C / D
survivoradvocacy@cpp.edu
(909) 869-2196

Disability Resource Center

Building 9 Room 103
drc@cpp.edu
(909)-869-3333

Family Support

Children's Center

Building 116
childrenscenter@cpp.edu
(909) 869-2284

Bronco Family Space

Library 3rd floor

- Children Literature / Story time
- Children iPads
- Ongoing event

CPP Kares

Provides Parents/ Caregivers of children age 0mths- 12 years old with educational activities and resources that can assist with educating children at home.

Parenting Student Support Network

This network serves as a central page for sharing on- and off-campus resources, building community, and highlighting our parenting student community.

Website- Student Parents CPP

CENTERS FOR T.R.E.E.

All centers welcome any person, regardless of how they identify. It is a space for people of all backgrounds to explore, learn, connect and build coalition

Asian & Pacific Islander Student Center

Supports student success through education & community engagement
Building 95 Room 101
Apisc@cpp.edu | (909)869-5025

Cesar E Chavez Center for Higher Education

Supports the graduation & cultural pride of Chicanxs/Latinxs
Building 95 Room 100
Cecche@cpp.edu | (909)869-5035

Pride Center

A safe space for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual and the broader queer and expansive communities
Building 66 Room
pride_center@cpp.edu | (909)869-2573

Womxn's Resource Center

Promotes gender equity through empowerment and encourages awareness
Building 95 Room 201
wrc@cpp.edu | (909)869-4492

Native American Student Center

Supports all achievements of Native American students while promoting traditional culture.
Building 66 Room 105
Nasc@cpp.edu | (909)869-3967

Black Resource Center

Committed to assisting African/African American/ Black college students in graduating Building 95 Room L110
brc@cpp.edu | (909)869-5006

TUTORING

LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER (LRC)

University's tutoring services are offered both in person and online. Located on the second floor of the library Room 2919

Email LRC@cpp.edu or
(909)869-3502 for appointments

READING, ADVISING & MENTORING (RAMP)

A TRIO Student Support Services Program, serving eligible low income first gen students and students with disabilities. Provides academic support, tutoring and career advising

Located in the Library Room 2919

MAXIMIZING ENGINEERING POTENTIAL (MEP)

Open to all students majoring in engineering. Tutoring offered Monday-Saturday. Other services include staff/ peer mentoring and academic success workshops

Located in Building 9 Room 153.

BIO-LA

Need help with your biology class? Visit website for information on tutoring hours.

Biology Learning Center is located in Building 4, 1st floor room 403. For questions email jortiz@cpp.edu

SCIENCE EDUCATION ENHANCEMENT SERVICES (SEES)

SEES is a program for science majors who can receive academic support through group study sessions led by trained facilitators

Located in Building 3 room 2123

STUDENT LIFE & RECREATION

STUDENT INNOVATION IDEAS LABS

Need a space to be Creative? The maker studio has places to 3D print, laser engravers, sewing machines and more all for free! Need a place to study? Check out the iLab or if you want to build other ideas check out the innovation orchard (IO)

INTRAMURAL & CLUB SPORTS

Want to join a team sport just for fun and to exercise? Join an intramural sport at the BRIC

BRONCO LEADERSHIP CENTER

Discover your passions and become a leader by discovering clubs and organizations that will help you develop all around
Building 26 Room 124 Email: leadership@cpp.edu

MYBAR (BRONCO ACTIVITY RECORD)

This website is where you can find all the different organizations, departments and clubs that are hosting events!

Clubs range from department/ major clubs to hobby-based clubs. Each club on campus can allow you to find community

FRATERNITY AND SORORITY LIFE (FSL)

There are Four subgroups in FSL life.

- Interfraternity council typically represents male fraternities
- Panhellenic Council historically represents female sororities
- National Pan-Hellenic Council historically represents black fraternities and sororities
- Multicultural Greek Council typically represents multicultural and culturally based Fraternities and Sororities

RESOURCES NEAR YOU

Immigrants Rising – Scholarships & Fellowships List

A curated, filterable list of scholarships and fellowships that do not require U.S. citizenship or DACA.

United We Dream – Scholarships Open to All Students

regularly updated list of scholarships open to undocumented and DACA students, including many California-based opportunities.

Presidents’ Alliance – Scholarship & Fellowship Directory

National and California-based scholarships for undergraduate and graduate students, including those without legal status.

MALDEF Mexican American Legal Defense & Educational Fund

Provides leadership programs and scholarships resource guide for high school, college and graduate students.

Immigration Resource LGBTQ+ Center

Provides education, resources and referrals to low income and underserved, HIV affected documented/ undocumented immigrants/ migrants who identify as LGBTQ

Immigration Resource Center

supports by providing low cost immigration Legal services and referral services that consider the needs of the whole person

My Undocumented Life

Provides up to date information and resources for undocumented students, families and allies. There is navigating college, life after college/ grad school and scholarship opportunities.

Your Journey Matters

This guide is here to support you, especially in moments when you're asking, “What can I do?” or feeling uncertain about your next steps. Whether you're exploring internships, entrepreneurship, or academic opportunities, remember: you have options, and you have support.

At Cal Poly Pomona, we are committed to walking with you every step of the way. Our team at Undocumented Student Services (USS) is here to provide resources, guidance, and a community that believes in your potential.

Your path may look different from others—and that’s okay. You are building something meaningful, and every step you take is a reflection of your strength, creativity, and determination.

Use this guide whenever you need direction, inspiration, or a reminder that your future is worth investing in.

If you ever need additional help, please reach out. We’re here for you.
Undocumented Student Services (USS)
Email: dream@cpp.edu

You can also explore system-wide support through the CSU:
CSU Resources for Undocumented Students

