I. CALL TO ORDER

MEGAN STANG, CHAIR

Megan Stang, Committee Chair, welcomed the committee members and called the meeting to order at 1:04 p.m.

II. UPD UPDATES & OUTREACH EFFORTS

CHIEF DINH

UPD and committee members will continue to push the 3020 Campaign throughout campus. Chief Dinh updated the members on the active shooter training; UPD had training for the Office of Academic Innovation, Bronco Safe Fair, and CTTI for personal preparedness. Also, training for the Cleary Compliance Groups quarterly meeting and at Spring Open House. Six active shooter and personal preparedness workshops are scheduled for the upcoming weeks. UPD has scheduled monthly training for the EOC team coming up throughout the year. On May 19th the President's Cabinet will be going through a tabletop exercise to ensure the VPs are involved in the process as well in case an incident were to arise, they know what to do.

UPD will introduce a Bronco safety tips portion on our Instagram and our Twitter and advertise our outreach efforts, pictures from the different events, the See Something, Say Something Campaign, 3070 ad campaign.

III. SURVIVOR ADVOCACY PRESENTATION

RHONDA DIXON

Mission: Survivor Advocacy Services (SAS) mission is to provide confidential support, prevention education, and promote advocacy for individuals impacted by sexual violence, dating/domestic abuse, and stalking in the Cal Poly Pomona community.

Vision: Survivor Advocacy Services (SAS) envisions a campus community free of sexual violence, sexual assault, dating/domestic abuse, and stalking. We will lead the way by promoting inclusive healthy relationships and empowering members of the campus community to create a culture that values a safe environment where survivors are supported.

How to get involved with SAS

CAMPUS POLICE ADVISORY & SAFETY COMMITTEE

MEETING MINUTES

The SAS Peer Ambassador program is a great way for students to gain experience in serving the community and looks great on your resume. Ambassadors' primary role is to support Peer Educators and Social Work Interns with their programs, events, and projects. This includes preparations as well as helping on the day of an event.

SAS Fall Events

September Events:

- Drugs and Alcohol with Health Center

October Events:

- Body Positivity with Health Center
- Healthy Relationships with MSI
- These Hands Don't Hurt

November Events:

- SAS x MSI: Surprise Guest Speaker
- Movie Night with NRHH
