Agribusiness and Food Industry Management Lecturer Openings

Thank you for your interest in joining Cal Poly Pomona's Agribusiness and Food Industry Management program as a lecturer.

We are soliciting applicants for our lecturer pool. We are particularly interested in applicants who can teach Accounting, Data Management, Agricultural History, Agricultural Ethics, Agribusiness Marketing, Agribusiness Finance, Agricultural Water Resources, and/or Agricultural Law.

Minimum Qualifications

- An earned Master’s Degree, including, but not limited to an MBA or an MS in Accountancy, from an accredited university.

Or

- An earned Juris Doctorate (J.D.) from an accredited university.

Preferred/Desired Qualifications

- College or university teaching experience.
- Relevant industry experience.

Appointments: Part-time, temporary lecturer appointments are usually made for one academic semester only (approximately 16 weeks at fractions usually ranging from 3/15 to 12/15 of full time—usually one to four classes; multiple semester appointments are sometimes possible). Incumbents may be reappointed to subsequent semesters contingent upon funding and favorable performance evaluations.

Application procedure: Candidates must submit originals of:

- A cover letter stating which courses you are interested in teaching.
- Current resume or CV.
- An official transcript showing highest degree earned (from an accredited educational institution).
- Three recent (in the last 12 months) letters of reference

California State Polytechnic University, Pomona
The university: Cal Poly Pomona, one of two polytechnic universities in California, is a member of the 23-campus California State University system. Our ethnically diverse student population of approximately 22,000 enrolls in 52 baccalaureates and 26 master's degree programs, and a doctorate in educational leadership, presented by 1,200 faculty. We recruit students increasingly from throughout California and beyond. The students are success- and career-focused and extremely diverse. We are proud of our status as a Hispanic Serving Institution. We have a strong commitment to supporting scholarship, research and student achievement. Our scenic and historic 1,400-acre campus, once the winter ranch of cereal magnate W.K. Kellogg, is located 30 miles east of downtown Los Angeles in one of the most dynamic economic and cultural regions in the country, and within an hour's drive of beaches, mountains and desert. The university is committed to diversifying its faculty and staff and has made educational equity one of its highest priorities. The mission of the university is to advance learning and knowledge by linking theory and practice in all disciplines, and to prepare students for lifelong learning, leadership and careers in a changing, multicultural world.

California State Polytechnic University, Pomona is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer. The university seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce as a reflection of our commitment to serve the people of California, to maintain the excellence of the university, and to offer our students richly varied disciplines, perspectives and ways of knowing and learning. Cal Poly Pomona subscribes to all state and federal regulations and prohibits discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, gender identity/gender expression, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy, age, disability, genetic information, medical condition, and covered veteran status. The University hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. As required by the Clery Disclosure Act, the university’s annual security report is available at http://www.cpp.edu/~police/annual-security-report.shtml. The person holding this position is considered a ‘mandated reporter’ under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.
