

Operations Management Society, OMS for short, is a business club—open to all majors—under the CBA that focuses on the supply chain and operations management work fields.

2021 – 2022 eBoard Members:

President Sri-Bhavya, 3rd year, TOM major, planning to graduate this spring.

VP / Treasurer Britney Ly, 3rd year, TOM major with CIS minor, planning to graduate next year.

Scheduler Jenny Lam, 4th year, TOM major with CIS minor, planning to graduate this spring.

Club Advisors:

Professor / Advisors Dr. Kumar and Dr. Zhu, both work under the TOM & EBZ department.

Our goal is to bridge the gap between what students learn in the classroom and reality. We do this by hosting a variety of events throughout the school year. These events help our members expand their networking map and gain insights into the field of supply chain and operations management. We also cover a variety of industries such as health care, aerospace, technology, etc.

Our core values are to apply class concepts to the real world, preview work environments and industries, help students secure internships and full-time job opportunities, and build an internal and external network. Precovid, OMS used to host company tour trips and this helped our members get an idea of the different environments they could potentially work in.

There are a variety of career paths available to explore in the field of supply chain and operations management.

For fall 2021 events, we'll be having a variety of guest speakers from different industries, hold professional development workshops, big networking and recruiting events, social nights, and collaboration with other business clubs. All these events hold great opportunities to get your foot in the door to building your career.

For membership, there are 2 types: non members (free) and members (paid). All members have access to general meetings, guest speakers, workshops, but the only difference is paid members get club goodies. In addition to goodies, if a member has 2 semesters worth of membership, they also get a graduation stole.
