I. Catalog Description

Weekly individual instructional lessons. Repertoire and technical studies determined by option selected as appropriate for piano, organ, or harpsichord. Jury examination required. Course not available to non-majors except by special audition. Repeatable up to 6 units.

II. Required Coursework and Background

Prerequisite(s): Minimum performance requirement posted in Music Department.

Permission to enroll by audition only.

Co-requisite(s): MU 2700 and appropriate ensemble.

Repeatable: Repeatable up to 6 units.

Audition information:

The student will be asked to perform two pieces of contrasting styles, musical periods and tempos. The selections need to demonstrate the student's musical and technical abilities. Students will be evaluated for their command of tone, phrasing, rhythmic accuracy, articulation, stylistic appropriateness and for their interpretation. Students need to be prepared to play any Major scales, 4 octaves, up and down. Students will need to show good control of key signatures and fingerings.

III. Expected Outcomes

1. Students will select, learn, memorize, and perform keyboard repertoire that is representative of different countries and style periods (at least 2 contrasting pieces).
2. Students will research composers and piano literature for stylistic features and historical background of repertoire being studied.
3. Students will develop technical keyboard skills through the study of exercises and etudes.
4. Students will perform repertoire in Performance Seminar (MU 2700), in master classes, and at other events, as directed in preparation for jury exams and public concerts.

The outcomes of this course relate to the following Music Department Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Perform a variety of music with expression and musical accuracy.
3. Demonstrate musicianship skills (including those involving technology) and conceptual understandings.
4. Demonstrate and articulate personal growth as a musician and student of music in the world.

BA General:

- 2: Perform a variety of music with expression and musical accuracy.
4. Demonstrate creativity, musicianship skills, an understanding of appropriate technology, and conceptual understandings.
