All are welcome to “Festival of the Animals” on Saturday, May 21st. The event, presented by the Cal Poly Pomona Philharmonic Orchestra, will feature pre-concert activities for the whole family starting at 11:30am including “Danny’s Farm” petting zoo. The concert begins at 1:00pm and will feature Carnival of the Animals by Camille Saint-Saëns and Peter and the Wolf by Sergei Prokofiev.

When asked about the significance of this event, Dr. Janine Riveire, who directs the Philharmonic Orchestra, explains “The Festival of Animals is an event we are presenting for the whole Pomona community. Families are invited to celebrate the wonderful way that music tells us about our world: it can tell stories and make us laugh or cry, and it brings us together. Carnival of the Animals and Peter and the Wolf were written especially for children. This event is also special because there will be fun activities for children before the concert: Danny’s Farm petting zoo, an instrument petting zoo, an art station to make animal puppets, and the opportunity to play party games. Bring a picnic or snacks and enjoy the campus.”
