

Group Listening/Viewing Rooms

Group Listening/Viewing Rooms are located on the 2nd floor, near the CD/DVD collection; room number 2234, 2236, 2238, 2240, and 2242.

Absolutely NO FOOD OR DRINK allowed in these rooms

Rooms are available to Cal Poly, Pomona students ONLY. You may reserve group listening/viewing rooms by using the Group Study Room Online Reservation System.

1. Group study rooms are for two or more people. If occupied by only one person, you will be asked to leave. For safety purposes, do not exceed Maximum Capacity.
2. Usage is limited to three hours.
3. You will need to logon with your Cal Poly, Pomona Bronconame and password to use the workstations.
4. Do not post materials on walls or windows, and do not remove or bring in additional furniture.
5. Please leave the room clean, turn off the lights, and lock the door when finished.
6. Users are responsible for the condition of the room. Report any previous damage (graffiti, etc.) to the Circulation Desk or call 909.869.3075.
7. As with all Library resources, group study room users must comply with the rules of use and conduct listed in the Code of Conduct for Library Users (<http://www.csupomona.edu/~library/circulation/conduct.html>).

Workstations include the following:

1. 37" Plasma Screen Monitor
2. CD/DVD Capability
3. Internet Capability
4. Microsoft Office
5. Google Earth
6. Roxio CD/DVD Creator Software

HELP US KEEP YOUR LIBRARY CLEAN!
FOOD IS NOT PERMITTED in the Library

Please report any problems with a Group Study Room to the Circulation Desk at x3075, 2nd floor