

Volunteer Leadership Boards & Councils

CalPoly
Pomona

WHO WE ARE

Volunteer leadership boards and councils at Cal Poly Pomona provide impactful opportunities for alumni, parents, and friends to work closely with academic and administrative leadership across the university's colleges, divisions, and programs. Board members provide expertise, support, and advocacy in service to the mission and goals of the university.

The Cal Poly Pomona Philanthropic Foundation (CPP-PF) has both fiduciary and philanthropic responsibility. All other boards and councils serve in their respective colleges and programs in an advisory capacity with philanthropic support encouraged.

OUR VALUES

In alignment with the Cal Poly Pomona Philanthropic Foundation (CPP-PF), we value:

Relationships: Cultivate strategic relationships with individuals and organizations committed to supporting the success of the university.

Student Success: Leverage our relationships and resources to impact student success in scholarship, academic endeavors, global community engagement, and career aspirations.

Excellence and Innovation: Demonstrate excellence in everything we do and in persistently striving for creativity and innovation in a polytechnic approach.

Stewardship: Meet our fiduciary responsibilities with integrity, accountability, and transparency, growing and maximizing the benefit of resources entrusted to the CPP-PF.

Diversity and Respect: Maintain a fully engaged board representing the university's diverse community, mission, and strategic initiatives, operating with integrity in a collaborative and inclusive environment respectful of all voices and ideas.

If you would like to join a volunteer board or learn more about how to get involved, please contact Pamela Jones-Tintle, Interim Associate Vice President for Development at pajones@cpp.edu.
