

What Can Be Done Under the First Amendment?

Express ideas that are disagreeable or hurtful to society.

Chalk on sidewalks without damaging grounds or buildings.

Have speakers.

Punish speech over the internet and social media that is a true threat and harassment.

Assemble and protest.

Use a bull horn in public places during reasonable times and without disruption of business.

Express speech to oppose, denounce, or dissent another form of free speech ("more speech").

Distribute leaflets in public areas.

Punish or censor speech that meets the legal criteria for harassment, true threats, or other speech acts unprotected by the First Amendment.

Picket with signs that are not true threats.